The Corinthian Club Racing Program for 2010

Corinthian Challenge Series

NOTICE OF RACE

Sunday, March 21, 2010
(Rev. 1, Aug 11, 2010: Date change to 8/29)

Notice

The series, comprising six races, is organized by the Corinthian Yacht Club of San Francisco. The series will be conducted according to the Racing Rules of Sailing 2009-2012 and will begin March 21, 2008, (first gun at 11:55). The race is open only to Corinthian Yacht Club boats that have submitted an entry form by 11:00 on the day of the first race they wish to enter. The races will be scored under PHRF or one-design rules as appropriate and as further specified in the Sailing Instructions. The Race Committee may modify ratings, and may assign ratings to boats without 2009 or 2010 YRA PHRF certificates or established one-design ratings.

Races

There will be six races, with divisions as specified in the Sailing Instructions for each day of racing. In addition to the Corinthian Challenge Perpetual Trophy, daily trophies will be awarded based on the low point scoring system (RRS Appendix A) as further described in the Sailing Instructions.

The Corinthian Challenge series (six races with one throw out)

- ★ March 21, 2010 (Sunday), the first challenge: three short races in Raccoon Strait
- ★ May 29, 2010, the second challenge: a pursuit race and grand tour of San Francisco Bay
